Teaching Fellow in Nursing

Candidate brief

Job description

Job Purpose:

To support the development of a new undergraduate nursing programme at Aston University and its successful NMC accreditation. Once accreditation is secured, the post-holder will contribute to the teaching, learning and assessment of nursing students, along with other healthcare undergraduate and postgraduate students.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

Teaching

- ▶ To contribute to the design, development and NMC accreditation of a nursing undergraduate programme.
- ▶ To ensure programme design and delivery comply with the quality standards and regulations of the University and NMC.
- ▶ To teach nursing students in accordance with NMC requirements.
- ▶ To teach undergraduate and postgraduate students, engaging learners in their academic studies and to carry out the associated assessment processes.
- ▶ To teach clinical assessment skills to healthcare students through workshops and small-group sessions, using online materials as required.
- ▶ To be responsible for the evaluation, design and content of specific areas of teaching within undergraduate and postgraduate programmes.
- ▶ Undertake the role of academic assessor for undergraduate and postgraduate nursing students as per NMC Standards for Supervision and Assessment.
- ▶ To promote and further develop the use of a range of contemporary methods and techniques in teaching, learning and assessment.
- ▶ To engage in the regular evaluation and development of activities for which the postholder has responsibility, in terms of content, delivery and assessment.
- ▶ To provide support and advice to undergraduate and postgraduate students
- ▶ To undertake academic administration relevant to the needs of the programmes and College.

Professional

- ▶ To form relevant contacts with the external nurse, medical and related health professions at a local and national level and to take an active role in the academic nurse community in order to enhance learning, teaching and research outcomes.
- ▶ To facilitate professional interface links with the NHS, and with other relevant professional external organisations.
- ▶ To contribute to scholarship in the area of clinical practice and to disseminate the outcomes through presentations at conferences and publication in professional and clinical journals.
- ▶ Maintain NMC registration in accordance with current revalidation processes.

Additional responsibilities

- ▶ To carry out specific administrative roles and functions as may be reasonably required (e.g. programme director, module co-ordinator, personal tutor, admissions tutor, academic assessor), these being equitably distributed across the academic staff.
- ▶ To work effectively as a team member.
- ▶ To engage in continuous training and development programmes in the University (e.g. through Staff Development) which are consistent with the needs of the post.

- ▶ To undertake such other duties as may be reasonably requested and that are commensurate with the nature and grade of the post, such as personal tutoring, timetabling, and assisting with admissions and Open Days.
- ▶ To promote the personal health, safety and wellbeing of staff and students.
- ▶ To promote equality of opportunity and support diversity and inclusion as well as working to support the University's environmental sustainability agenda and practices.
