Lecturer in Economics

Job description

Job Purpose:

To contribute to, develop and enhance the research, scholarship and teaching activities of the School either independently or as part of a team, through professional practice and expertise. In addition, to develop external links with regional, UK and international bodies such as government agencies, schools, colleges, professional bodies, business and industry as appropriate to the subject discipline, School and/or University strategy.

The majority of academic staff will undertake a balance of research and teaching and learning activities. Whilst ability and effectiveness should be demonstrated in all areas, individuals may be more specifically focussed on research, teaching and learning or external engagement. This balance will be discussed and agreed with individuals annually in the PDR meeting in line with operational needs, School and University strategy and with consideration of the individual's career goals and development plans.

Main Duties/Responsibilities:

Research

- ▶ To build and maintain a global presence in their field, with an international reputation, through publishing research outcomes in outlets of international standing and impacting on business policy and practice.
- ▶ To participate in internal and external research networks, educational and professional bodies and the business community, fostering collaboration and promoting the Subject Group, School and University. In particular, to seek ways of actively contributing to the research agenda of the Lloyds Banking Group Centre for Business Prosperity (LBGCBP), Enterprise Research Centre (ERC) and the Centre for Research in Ethnic Minority Entrepreneurship. However, we welcome applications from ambitious scholars in any area of economics.
- ▶ To supervise the work of others (where appropriate) in research teams, including MSc dissertations, DBA and PhD dissertations.

In addition, at grade 9

- ▶ To show leadership in Economics Research by being a Principle Investigator for research funding.

Teaching and Learning

- ▶ To contribute to the Department's learning and teaching responsibilities in economics and econometrics possibly including online modules.
- ▶ To supervise postgraduate students in relevant subject areas.
- ▶ To administer taught programmes in economics at all levels and collaborate with other schools and subject groups in the design and development of these programmes.
- ▶ To take on administrative roles and responsibilities as would be reasonably expected.

In addition, at grade 9

- ▶ To be responsible for the design and content of specific areas of teaching and learning within the School's teaching Programmes with guidance, notably for Masters courses in Economics.
- ▶ To innovate in teaching, demonstrate continuous professional development and critical reflective practice, translating knowledge into the course of study.

External Engagement

- ▶ To contribute to student placement schemes with companies and research institutions both in the UK and overseas.
- ▶ To contribute to plans to demonstrate research impact and secure commercialisation, identifying and pursuing opportunities for translational research where appropriate to role and discipline.
- ▶ To enhance the University's reputation with professional/scholarly bodies e.g. by promoting understanding of the subject.

In addition, at grade 9

- ▶ To develop research and development collaborations with industry partners to secure additional direct funding where appropriate to focus and subject discipline

Citizenship

- ▶ To carry out specific School roles and functions as may be reasonably required (e.g. Programme Co-ordinator, Personal Tutor, Admissions Tutor), these being equitably distributed across the academic staff.
- ▶ To provide pastoral care and support to students.
- ▶ To take part in and, if required, manage staff seminars, cross-departmental activities and events e.g. Open Days, Sixth Form Conferences etc.
- ▶ To display and promote Aston values through own actions and behaviour.
- ▶ To undertake such other duties as may be reasonably requested and that are commensurate with the nature and grade of the post.

In addition, at grade 9

- ▶ To take part in and, on occasion, act as Chair of one or more of the School committees, these responsibilities being equitably distributed across the academic staff.

Additional responsibilities

- ▶ Engage in continuous personal and professional development in line with the demands of the role, including undertaking relevant training and development activities to develop themselves and support the development of others.
- ▶ Ensure and promote the personal health, safety and wellbeing of staff and students.
- ▶ Carry out duties in a way which promotes fairness in all matters and which engenders trust.
- ▶ Promote equality of opportunity and support diversity and inclusion as well as working to support the University's environmental sustainability agenda and practices.
