Job description

Job Purpose:

The newly established Aston Institute for Membrane Excellence (AIME) is a unique, interdisciplinary, intersectoral research and training hub for translational membrane science. AIME is supported by the Research England (RE) Expanding Excellence in England (E3) Programme and will synergistically combine world-leading expertise in membrane biology and novel polymer chemistries to establish a first-of-its-kind institute, expanding our distinctive excellence in computational membrane science, membrane structural determination and sustainable polymers research. Over the next five years, we will recruit 20 new colleagues to expand our new institute.

We now wish to recruit four Tenure-Tracked Research Fellows to build capacity in our new institute. This is an exciting opportunity to build your research profile and establish your independence. The level of appointment is within 5 years of obtaining your PhD, but a higher-level appointment could be made depending on qualifications, achievements and experience. The post holder will work closely with members of AIME across the Colleges of Engineering and Physical Sciences (EPS) and Health and Life Sciences (HLS) and is expected to contribute to, develop and enhance the research, scholarship and teaching activities of AIME either independently or as part of the team, through professional practice and expertise. In addition, the post holder will develop external links with regional UK and international bodies such as government agencies, schools, colleges, professional bodies, business and industry as appropriate to AIME's strategy.

The post is available for a fixed term of 5 years with an ideal start date of 1st August 2024. Subject to progress, a permanent academic contract will be available from 30th July 2029.

Main Duties and Responsibilities

Research

- ▶ To establish a personal research programme consistent with the research priorities of AIME.
- ▶ To work with colleagues to develop collaborative, interdisciplinary research work across the institute/college/university.
- ▶ To publish the outcomes of research in outlets of international standing.
- ▶ To identify sources of funding, develop and submit funding applications, and secure external research funding.
- ▶ To supervise and manage research projects.
- ▶ To supervise postgraduate students at Masters and doctoral levels. To foster an environment which encourages research among students at postgraduate level.

Teaching

- ▶ To undertake limited teaching duties for undergraduate and postgraduate student programmes and to carry out the associated examining and assessment processes.
- ▶ To provide academic and pastoral support and advice to students.

- ▶ To promote the use of a range of methods and techniques in teaching, learning and assessment.
- ▶ To engage in the regular evaluation and development of modules for which the successful applicant has responsibility, in terms of content, delivery and assessment.
- ▶ To contribute to the introduction of a new Masters programme within the AIME remit.

Engagement

- ▶ To liaise with external academic, commercial and policy partners in relation to research and teaching.
- ▶ To raise the profile of the research institute/college/university via outreach and engagement activities.
- ▶ To work with partners to deliver impact from research work.
- ▶ To work towards commercialization of research via appropriate pursuit of Intellectual Property exploitation, where appropriate.

Other related activities and functions

- ▶ To carry out specific AIME and College roles and functions as may be reasonably required, these being equitably distributed across the academic staff.
- ▶ To take part in the work of University or College Committees.
- ▶ To engage in training programmes in the University (e.g. through Staff Development) which are consistent with the needs and aspirations of the member of staff and AIME.
- ▶ To support diligently quality assurance measures within the University (e.g. by reviewing delivered modules annually, setting and receiving student feedback questionnaires).
- ▶ To undertake such other duties as may be reasonably requested and that are commensurate with the nature and grade of the post.

Additional responsibilities

- ▶ To engage in continuous personal and professional development in line with the demands of the role, including undertaking relevant training and development activities to develop themselves and support the development of others.
- ▶ To ensure and promote the personal health, safety and wellbeing of staff and students.
- ▶ To carry out duties in a way which promotes fairness in all matters and which engenders trust.
- ▶ To promote equality of opportunity and support diversity and inclusion as well as working to support the University's environmental sustainability agenda and practices.
