Job description

Job Purpose:

To contribute to, develop and enhance the teaching and scholarship and activities of the School either independently or as part of a team, through professional practice and expertise. In addition, to develop external links with regional, UK and international bodies such as government agencies, schools, colleges, professional bodies, business and industry as appropriate to the subject discipline and School and/or University strategy.

Main Duties/Responsibilities:

Teaching and Learning

- ▶ To teach students at different levels as appropriate including foundation, undergraduate and postgraduate students, and to carry out the associated examining processes.
- ▶ To be responsible for the design and content of specific areas of teaching and learning within the School's teaching Programmes, identifying areas in need of revision or improvement.
- ▶ To co-ordinate and supervise the activity of teaching teams as appropriate, ensuring that the programme meets quality standards, monitoring delivery and student progress.
- ▶ To provide academic support, pastoral care and advice to foundation, undergraduate and postgraduate students.
- ▶ To informally and formally mentor junior colleagues in effective teaching practice.
- ▶ To cooperate with colleagues across disciplines in the continuous review and development of Programmes and the curriculum.
- ▶ To use and promote the use of a range of methods and techniques in teaching, learning and assessment including pursuing digital and modern methods of delivery.
- ▶ To engage in supporting and promoting quality assurance measures within the University e.g. by evaluation and development of a range of modules or within a subject area in terms of content, delivery and assessment as well as reviewing delivered modules, setting and receiving student feedback questionnaires.
- ▶ To innovate in teaching, demonstrate continuous professional development and critical reflective practice.

Research

- ▶ To pursue and develop pedagogical research consistent with the teaching priorities and strategy of the School.
- ▶ To publish the outcomes of research in professional journals, textbooks and at professional conferences and seminars etc.
- ▶ To disseminate the findings of pedagogical research to colleagues within and beyond the School.
- ▶ To develop proposals and secure competitive external funding as relevant to the subject discipline
- ▶ To collaborate in initiatives with colleagues in and beyond the School, including University-wide multi-disciplinary groups, as appropriate.

External Engagement

- ▶ To develop student placement schemes with companies and research institutions both in the UK and overseas.
- ▶ To contribute to businesses, the public sector and communities e.g. through innovation, knowledge transfer, cultural enrichment, advising government bodies, contributing to and influencing government (UK or overseas) policy-making and standards.
- ▶ To enhance the University's reputation with professional/scholarly bodies by participating in existing networks and by developing new links capable of demonstrating impact.
- ▶ To represent the interests of the subject and School via activities to raise the regional, national and international profile, particularly with the professions, schools and businesses.

Citizenship

- ▶ To carry out specific School roles and functions as may be reasonable required e.g. Module Leader, Personal Tutor
- ▶ To manage own teaching, scholarship and administrative activities
- ▶ To provide pastoral care and support to students.
- ▶ To act as personal tutor providing first line support to students.
- ▶ To take part in and, if required, manage staff seminars, cross-departmental activities and events e.g. Open Days, Sixth Form Conferences etc.
- ▶ To contribute to Academic Department meetings and on occasion, act as chair of one or more of the School committees, these responsibilities being equitably distributed across the academic staff.
- ▶ To display and promote Aston values through own actions and behaviour.
- ▶ To undertake such other duties as may be reasonably requested and that are commensurate with the nature and grade of the post.

Additional responsibilities

- ▶ Engage in continuous personal and professional development in line with the demands of the role, including undertaking relevant training and development activities to develop themselves and support the development of others.
- ▶ Ensure and promote the personal health, safety and wellbeing of staff and students.
- ▶ Carry out duties in a way which promotes fairness in all matters and which engenders trust.
- ▶ Promote equality of opportunity and support diversity and inclusion as well as working to support the University's environmental sustainability agenda and practices.
