Job description

We have an opportunity in the Business Analytics and Information Systems (BAIS) Department for Lecturer in Business Analytics. We welcome candidates who have research strengths in the area of business analytics and in particular with a focus on specified areas such as artificial intelligence, healthcare analytics, behavioural analytics, IoT, performance analytics, disaster management analytics and data mining. Applicability to managerial contexts is essential. Practical skills in business analysis software such as SAS, Power BI, Tableau and Google Analytics are essential. Teaching experience in the areas of all types of analytics is welcome but any experience in programming languages such as Python and R, as well as data mining methods is highly desirable. Applicability to managerial contexts is essential. Applicants should have experience of teaching at different levels – ideally at under-graduate and at post-graduate levels (MSc/MBA) and have potential to deliver executive education courses. Applicants should be able to demonstrate effective and innovative teaching practices and a willingness to participate in the design of new modules and courses, based on innovative research, including those delivered by distance learning. The ability to deliver industry certified courses in the above subjects is also desirable.

We seek applicants who can teach students in the Business School (e.g., those on general business courses, marketing, law, HR, finance, and analytical degrees) and those who are able to produce impactful related research. The ability to supervise DBA/PhD students is essential. The ability to deliver industry certified courses in the above subjects is desirable.

Applicants should have a good first degree in Business and Management, Operational Research or similar as well as a higher degree in a relevant academic discipline. They must also be able to demonstrate an established or emerging path of research with links to teaching and learning, and engagement with external stakeholders. We are especially looking for people with a 'hands-on' and 'can-do' attitude. The University actively supports and finances academic and entrepreneurial spin-offs.

Job Purpose: To contribute to, develop and lead on areas of research, scholarship and teaching activities of the School either independently or as part of a team, through professional practice and expertise. In addition, to exploit external links with regional, UK and international bodies such as government agencies, schools, colleges, professional bodies, business and industry as appropriate to the subject discipline and School and/or University strategy. Senior Lecturers will be at least nationally recognised for their expertise.

The majority of academic staff will undertake a balance of research and teaching and learning activities. Whilst ability and effectiveness should be demonstrated in all areas, individuals may be more specifically focussed on research, teaching and learning or external engagement. This balance will be discussed and agreed with individuals annually in the MPDC meeting in line with operational needs, School and University strategy and with consideration of the individual's career goals and development plans.

Main Duties/Responsibilities

Research

- ▶ To develop research objectives, projects and proposals for personal/joint research programmes consistent with the School's research priorities.
- ▶ To write up research and publish the outcomes in good quality publications.
- ▶ To identify sources of funding, develop and submit funding applications, securing external research funding.

- ▶ Where appropriate to School/University strategy and subject discipline, to participate in and develop external networks.
- ▶ To supervise and manage research projects.
- ▶ To supervise postgraduate students at Masters and doctoral levels. To foster an environment which encourages research among students at postgraduate level.
- ▶ To collaborate in research initiatives with colleagues in and beyond the School as appropriate.

Teaching and Learning

- ▶ To teach students at different levels including foundation, undergraduate and postgraduate students, and to carry out the associated examining processes.
- ▶ To be contribute to/ be responsible for the design and content of specific areas of teaching and learning within the School's teaching Programmes, with guidance.
- ▶ To provide academic support and advice to foundation, undergraduate and postgraduate students.
- ▶ To cooperate with colleagues across disciplines in the continuous review and development of Programmes and the curriculum.
- ▶ To use and promote the use of a range of methods and techniques in teaching, learning and assessment including pursuing digital and modern methods of delivery.
- ▶ To engage in supporting and promoting quality assurance measures within the University e.g. by evaluation and development of modules for which the lecturer has responsibility, in terms of content, delivery and assessment as well as reviewing delivered modules, setting and receiving student feedback questionnaires.
- ▶ To be responsible for the design and content of specific areas of teaching and learning within the School's teaching Programmes with guidance
- ▶ To innovate in teaching, demonstrate continuous professional development and critical reflective practice, translating knowledge into the course of study.

External Engagement

- ▶ To contribute to student placement schemes with companies and research institutions both in the UK and overseas.
- ▶ To contribute to plans to demonstrate research impact and secure commercialisation, identifying and pursuing opportunities for translational research where appropriate to role and discipline.
- ▶ To enhance the University's reputation with professional/scholarly bodies e.g. by promoting understanding of the subject.
- ▶ To develop research and development collaborations with industry partners to secure additional direct funding where appropriate.

Citizenship

- ▶ To carry out specific School roles and functions as may be reasonably required (e.g. Programme Co-ordinator, Personal Tutor, Admissions Tutor), these being equitably distributed across the academic staff.
- ▶ To provide pastoral care and support to students.
- ▶ To take part in and, if required, manage staff seminars, cross-departmental activities and events e.g. Open Days, Sixth Form Conferences etc.
- ▶ To display and promote Aston values through own actions and behaviour.
- ▶ To undertake such other duties as may be reasonably requested and that are commensurate with the nature and grade of the post.
- ▶ To take part in and, on occasion, act as Chair of one or more of the School committees, these responsibilities being equitably distributed across the academic staff.

Additional responsibilities

- ▶ Engage in continuous personal and professional development in line with the demands of the role, including undertaking relevant training and development activities.
- ▶ Ensure and promote the personal health, safety and wellbeing of staff and students.
- ▶ Carry out duties in a way which promotes fairness in all matters, and which engenders trust.
- ▶ Promote equality of opportunity and support diversity and inclusion as well as working to support the University's environmental sustainability agenda and practices.
